General Information

Ai-Kon is held at the spacious Winnipeg Convention Centre on July 20th-22nd, 2012 in Winnipeg, Manitoba Canada. Ai-Kon is a family friendly convention and prides itself on being accessible to all age groups. As a long standing event in Winnipeg, each year has shown an increase in both attendance and physical size as we bring this festival back for prairie anime fans.

In 2011, our convention attendance increased to 2575 and has an expected growth to surpass 2800 in 2012. We invite you to our ten year anniversary event and to be part of this milestone in Ai-Kon's history!

Ai-Kon reserves the right to do a walkthrough before the opening of the vendors' room; no items may be covered at any time during this walkthrough or at any time the vendor room remains open. Ai-Kon is a family friendly convention; any adult merchandise being sold at the convention must be done so discreetly. No yaoi paddles will be permitted to be sold at this year's convention.

Any items that do not fall within our weapon policy must be packaged and immediately removed from the convention centre or checked into the Bag check area. No weapons will be sold to attendees under the age of 18.

Behaviour such as loud yelling, playing loud music may be disruptive to attendees and other vendors; and will not be permitted in the Vendor's Room.

Any violation of the rules risks expulsion from the convention and will result in not being able to return in upcoming years.

Some forms may be required to be filed through The Manitoba Finance-Taxation Division and they should be contacted prior to the convention at (204)945-5603.

Any questions or concerns may be directed to the vendor coordinator, Katie Helgason, at vendors@ai-kon.org prior to the convention.
